

GreenBook Health[®] Certification Seal Marketing Program

Prospective buyers who visit your website look for signs to assess how much trust they can put into your company and its presentation. In today's competitive environment, any indicator of trust could make a real difference.

This is where the GBHealth Certification Seal comes in. Display of the Seal will help your customers gain confidence that you are a reliable business partner and have the satisfied customers to prove it.

All current advertisers in the GreenBook Health directory with at least one active GBHealth Certification Program icon qualify.

To add the GBHealth Certification Seal to your company's website, simply choose your preferred size, copy the HTML code provided below, and paste it where you would like it to appear on a webpage:
